

Cindy Thompson

Chair/Lecturer

University of Belize

Cindy Thompson is a self-driven individual who inspires others to achieve their goals. She has been in the teaching profession for the past thirteen years. Nine of which were at the University of Belize. She also worked as an auditor for over two years. Her research interest is in finance and accounting. Thompson attended and presented at international research conferences. She is also actively engaged in religious duties. Her degrees include an MBA with a concentration in finance from Galen University and a bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Belize. She also completed several Doctor of Business Administration Courses at the University of South Florida and is currently a Ph.D. candidate. Thompson currently serves as chair of the FMSS Belmopan branch and chairs the minimum wage task force in Belize.